

Probate Judges

Disability Retirement Requirements

If eligible, any Probate Judge who has served five or more years as a Probate Judge may retire on disability. ERS or TRS transfer service is included in the service requirement of five or more years. The Judge must be unable to perform his or her duties on a full-time basis due to becoming permanently disabled, either physically or mentally. Proof of this disability must be certified by three reputable physicians.